Also, it feels more real, not coming from a robot. I really like to make my audience feel... I don't know how to say it... human. People can feel more human when they have the opportunity to be what they would like to be, not only when they play their roles in movies, but in other things. This is a very interesting idea for a movie, because, after all, what is a movie? A movie is a mixture of reality, fantasy and dreams, and how would you like your audience to feel when they watch a movie? That's what I was trying to achieve. 0946cee1be
