

In honour of this great event, "Puruvu Thevaram" will be launched on the auspicious day of Shravana, the fourth month of the Tamil calendar. The Tv9 and Km1 channel will telecast the music concert of Thevaram album in Tamil on 13 March, 6 pm. On this occasion, all the principal artistes of the album will have the honour of singing these Thevaram hymns exclusively. Read more below in this page. "The first song of the album, Puravu Thevaram, is a raw rendition of a Thevaram hymn. This song deals with the dedication to the Divine Mother. In Tamil, it is written: " O Mother of all, pleased am I with Thy grace, pleased am I with Thy glory. " In the traditional rendering, first the sugalai (beautiful lady) is sung. The next instrument that comes in is the mohanam (the drum), which is a very ancient instrument. Thereafter, the Kudamani (cymbals) come in, followed by the thavaram (the tabla), which is played by the Kombu (tabla player). Kunnakkaran came in with the Siyaal pathaanam (frigid water). Mandala will be played and the song will conclude with the Kumbhaka (the falling pose)." In the instrumental section, the traditional rendition begins with Sowbhagavan Thavaram (a different rendition from the one in the Tamil songs). Kadalars do not go with this and the melody remains as the one in the Tamil songs. Kudamani (cymbals) comes in, followed by the Thavaram (Tabla), followed by the Kunnakkar (a different rendition from the one in the Tamil songs). Sowbhagavan Thavaram is played. This is followed by Sowbhagavan Tirutham (which is sung in Siyaal Pathaanam). This ends the Raga. The Kunnakkar (Cymbals) is played next. Next comes Thavaram (Tabla) again. The Kudamani (Cymbals) are played and the song concludes with Kumbhaka (Sleeping Pose).
